

Downsizing Lessons from Seniors Who Know

People say the thought of moving out of a home they have lived in for decades is often overwhelming. They allow fear and anxiety about the downsizing process to cause them to stay in a place or situation that no longer serves their needs.

Learn how other men, women, and couples just like you have overcome their fears and made the decision to downsize. Our panel of actual down-sizers will answer these questions and more:

- What were the challenges you faced when downsizing?
- What were the pros & cons in your experience?
- How did you manage the details of such a move?
- What would you do differently if you had to do it again?
